

FilmSpray Preview

LDM - Lorenzo de' Medici Institute in collaboration with the Assessore of Youth Policies of the Comune di Firenze present the exclusive preview of the new edition of the FilmSpray Festival

WEDNESDAY APRIL 13 AT 9 PM PREVIEW OF GOOD BYE MR ZEUS!

The FilmSpray Festival is launching pad for the best of Italian cinema that has failed to enter the large-distribution market despite their quality or appeal. It is not easy for Italian films to enter the large-scale distribution market, and in embracing the philosophy of empowerment, which the Lorenzo de' Medici Institute (LdM) has always worked to promote, the festival was established in order to give filmmakers a second chance for success. It also allows an highly esteemed audience of Italian and foreign filmgoers to judge these films, which have so far been unable to enter the traditional large-distribution market or who are on the verge of entering it.

The winning film will be distributed by RAI TRADE throughout the world and, starting this year, it will also be screened in UCI Cinemas.
